The Court finds that the ends of justice are served by the granting of such a continuance outweigh the best interest of the public in a speedy trial because the defendant is absent.

Accordingly, the continuance is ALLOWED. The intervening time from 2/13/13 to 4/17/2013 is excluded from speedy trial computation under 18 USC 3161.

This the 13 day of February, 2013

United States Magistrate Judge
